

Statement

Meryl Brodsky is running for a Member at Large position for the Executive Board of the EMU-AAUP. She is an Assistant Professor of Library Sciences for Eastern Michigan University. She is the liaison to the College of Business and the Economics department. She has been at EMU since the Fall of 2015. Prior to this, she worked in academia (Cornell University) and the corporate world, in large (Ernst & Young, and Hewlett-Packard) and small (National Instruments) companies. Her past experiences with unions have to do with research related to her MBA, in which she concentrated in Business Law, examining cases related to minimum wage, harassment, and the right to organize.

Service at EMU

2015:

Department (Library)

- Marketing team
- Collection Development team
- Two searches for Library Faculty

College (College of Business)

- Professionalism committee member

University

- Interview applicants and score essays for the Presidential scholarship for the Honor's College

2016:

Department (Library)

- Marketing team
- Collection Development team
- Finance Committee: Travel Liaison

College (College of Business)

- Professionalism committee member

University

- Interview applicants and score essays for the Presidential scholarship for the Honor's College
- University Research and Sabbatical Leave Committee Winter